

IMAX® Documentary "America's Musical Journey" Featuring Aloe Blacc Launches on GoUSA TV in Australia

SYDNEY - November 28, 2018

On Dec. 8, the giant-screen IMAX® film "America's Musical Journey" featuring Grammy Award-Nominated singer and songwriter Aloe Blacc will launch on GoUSA TV for a special, limited-time holiday-season release. To celebrate this special digital release of the film, which premiered earlier this year at the IMAX® Melbourne, Brand USA will host an official launch event in Sydney tonight at the Sydney Opera House and on Dec. 3 in Melbourne at IMAX® Melbourne. Each event features live performances by Austin, Texas, native Mobley and Australia's chart-topping singer and songwriter Taylor Henderson. The movie collaboration between Brand USA, the destination marketing organization for the United States, and MacGillivray Freeman Films was made possible with the support of global presenting sponsors Expedia Group and Air Canada.

"America's Musical Journey" reveals the United States' rich musical heritage as Blacc traces the nation's unique cultural roots through the footsteps of music legends like Louis Armstrong and Elvis Presley. The film explores the collision of cultures that gave birth to distinctly American musical genres such as jazz, blues, country, rock and roll, and hip-hop, and takes audiences on a journey through the diverse communities at the heart of the United States' music traditions, including New Orleans, Louisiana; Chicago, Illinois; New York City, New York; Nashville and Memphis, Tennessee; and Miami, Florida.

The IMAX® format immerses moviegoers into the story as they are introduced to musicians, artists, and innovators shaping American culture today. These include Jon Batiste, bandleader and musical director of "The Late Show with Stephen Colbert," as well as Latin music icons Gloria and Emilio Estefan and many more.

"Australia is a top-10 market for international visitation to the United States, and we want potential Aussie travelers to experience the diversity of America through our music," said Christopher L. Thompson, president and CEO of Brand USA. "America's Musical Journey" is an adventure through our musical heritage and the cultural cities where American music was born. We hope this film inspires even more Aussies to visit America."

"Music is an essential part of the human experience, and I look forward to helping audiences discover the unique cultural influences that gave rise to jazz, the blues, folk, and other musical genres in the United States," says Blacc. "I love the freedom of expression in this country, which is a source of creativity and innovation unlike anywhere else."

"America's Musical Journey" debuted in February 2018, and has been well-received by critics and audiences alike in Canada, France, Japan, Mexico, South Korea, Spain, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. The film follows the tremendous success of Brand USA's first film, "National Parks Adventure," which was the industry's fastest giant-screen roll-out in five years, with 48 exhibitions in six countries in 2016 and 119 exhibitions in 16 countries within its first 12 months. According to an ROI study by Oxford Economics, "National Parks Adventure" is estimated to have generated 46,700 trips to the United States and $173 million in visitor spending in Fiscal Year 2017. Including indirect and induced impacts, the film also supported 2,308 jobs with $111 million in personal income.

"America's Musical Journey's" launch on GoUSA TV Australia is a special limited-time opportunity exclusive to the Australian market, and marks the first time the film will be available to audiences outside of theaters in advance of a broader global digital release next year. GoUSA TV is a first-of-its-kind connected TV network launched by Brand USA and is dedicated to delivering real, authentic, and on-demand video content about travel experiences in the United States.

In October, Brand USA launched the GoUSA TV app available to Apple users via this link or by searching for "GoUSA TV" in the App Store. Android users can now also download the app via this link or by searching for "GoUSA TV" in the Google Play Store. As GoUSA TV's global audience grows, the app will enable Brand USA to strategically curate and distribute video content across several categories, including the Great Outdoors, Road Trips, Food & Drink, and Culture & Events.
