

Kathrin Kush is senior controller for Brand USA, the public-private partnership responsible for launching the United States' first-ever nationally coordinated tourism marketing effort. Kathrin oversees the accounting team and processing activities, is responsible for general ledger accuracy, and manages the annual audit process and tax return.

Kathrin is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a member of the AICPA. She studied at the University of Central Florida, earning a BS in Accounting and Finance and a Masters in Accounting. Kathrin started her career in public accounting as a non-profit auditor at CliftonLarsonAllen and, from there, she moved on to work for the Artisphere (Arlington County, VA) prior to being hired by Brand USA. She is excited to be back at Brand USA after a three-year break which allowed her to concentrate on family while working part time with a few fantastic tech startup companies. A wife and mother who loves to cook, knit, and play video games, Kathrin is also a traveler who has visited over 22 U.S. states and Washington, DC.
